Author visits: lunchtimes in the library

Monday 1st July

Rayan Philips is a YA author who likes to write about nerd things and friendship. They feel that representing people who are not usually seen in books is important, including LGBTQ characters and people with mental health issues.

Their current book is about a girl called Elora who hasn't left the house in 2 years, and makes herself go to comic con so she can shock herself into making friends.

Tuesday 2nd July

Growing up in the wilds of west Wiltshire, Eve Griffiths' family didn't have a television, but they did have a small canal boat, which seemed like a good trade. As a child, Eve read everything she could get her hands on, including the backs of cereal packets and instruction manuals. Eve studied for her Master of Nursing Science at the University of Nottingham and qualified as a children's nurse in 2005. She now works in children's intensive care, but on her days off she escapes into other worlds.

Wednesday 3rd July

Author and comic book writer Cavan Scott is a UK number one bestseller who has written for such popular worlds as Star Wars, Doctor Who, Star Trek, Vikings, Judge Dredd, Pacific Rim, and Sherlock Holmes. He is the author of Star Wars Dooku: Jedi Lost, The Patchwork Devil, and Cry of the Innocents, and is part of Lucasfilm's Project Luminous publishing initiative. He has written comics for IDW, Dark Horse, Vertigo, Titan, Legendary, 2000AD, and the Beano.

What else is happening?

Staff DEAR takeover all week – they will be reading to you!

Staff will have favourite quotes from books on doors – ask your teachers about their reading!
